Location

This opportunity is situated on Jesmond Road, facing the main route leading into and out of Newcastle from the east. Jesmond is one of the most sought-after residential suburbs of Newcastle within walking distance of the City centre and comprising an excellent infrastructure.

This property forms part of a busy shopping terrace, close to Jesmond Dene and the surrounding area comprises mainly residential housing. Access is straightforward from the A1058 Coast Road and there are bus stops nearby.

Business Opportunity

This is an extremely successful and established restaurant location from which the former tenant traded successfully for 12 years before deciding to pursue another opportunity.

The premises are in excellent order and offer a distinctive configuration with public spaces on 3 different levels. The ground floor offers bar, waiting and dining options and then on the first floor there is another dining space plus the well-equipped open plan kitchen. Overlooking the first floor is another open plan dining space plus separate toilet and office facilities.

The premises can accommodate up to 60 covers and would be suitable for a variety of cuisines. Viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the location, fit out and potential of this opportunity.

Premises

Comprises part of a self-contained 3 storey space which extends to circa 175 sq.m. (1,880 sq.ft.). The property is well appointed and air conditioning and mood lighting is installed to the public areas.
